

St. Lawrence Seaway

July 2 - 5, 2010

Where will the adventure take you?
Canada

Diving in the St. Lawrence Seaway is like diving the Caribbean of the North. For its geographical location, it's a warm water destination with ~70°F waters, great visibility, and best of all it's right in your backyard. Explore wrecks such as old wooden schooners from the early 1800s to modern day freighters.

$650

double occupancy

3 two-tank dives
3 nights at Days Inn Brockville

Drive up Friday, July 2
Dive Saturday, Sunday, and Monday
Depart Monday, or extend your stay!
Breakfast included
Nitrox available
Shore diving and drift diving available

Small group size (6 divers max)
Experienced trip leader familiar with the local sites

Recommended Gear

- 5 mm wetsuit or drysuit
- Gloves and hood
- Lights, reels, and lift bags
- SCUBA cylinder and weights
- All standard SCUBA gear

Come by Annapolis Scuba for all your gear needs!

Single supplement $225
Non-diver rate $325

50% Non-refundable deposit required
Balance due 30 days prior to trip

Dive conditions

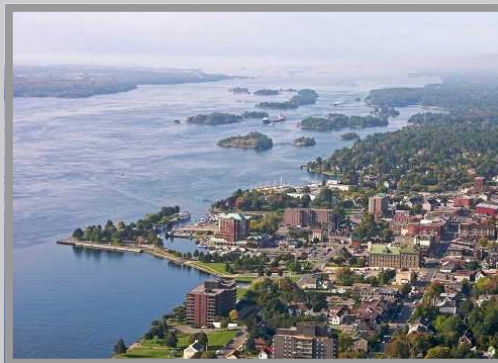

- Water temperature ~70°F
- Over 50 ft. visibility
- Calm surface conditions
- Short boat rides

Specialty courses offered

- Deep - 4 dives $250 + books*
- Wreck - 4 dives $250 + books*
- Nitrox - 2 dives $135 + books*
- Drift - 2 dives $175 + books*
- Advanced Nitrox $350 + books*
- Deco Procedures $350 + books*

*Certification fee $35

After diving, enjoy the beautiful city of Brockville.

- Shopping, antiques, restaurants
- Go for a swim
- Check out St. Lawrence Park
- Kayaking and fishing